

1Password 7: Just the Facts

1Password 7 for Mac is an amazing update, and there are some important things everyone should know.

- 1Password 7 is included as part of a 1Password membership. If you have an active subscription, just upgrade and go.
 - 1Password memberships include 1Password on all platforms (Mac, iOS, Windows, Android, Web, Command Line).
 - 1Password memberships are available for individuals, families, teams, and businesses.
 - 1Password memberships are $2.99/month for individuals, $4.99/month for families, $3.99/person/month for teams, and $7.99/person/month for businesses.
- For those who wish to purchase a standalone license for 1Password 7 for Mac, licenses are available when 1Password is downloaded from our website.
 - Licenses are $49.99 for a limited time, and $64.99 after that.
 - 1Password for Mac licenses purchased after March 27, 2018 are valid for version 7.
 - Licenses are per-person, per-platform.
- macOS Sierra (10.12) or later is required.
- To upgrade to 1Password 7, simply install it from our website or the Mac App Store. Your information will be automatically available when you open 1Password 7 for the first time.
 - The Mac App Store edition is a new, separate app from the existing 1Password 6 listing and is only available for users with 1Password memberships.
 - License purchases are available when installed from our website.

